

1.2 Objective - Grad School

It's frequently said that grad school is about much more than obtaining a few letters behind your name and a fancy piece of paper; it's about developing yourself professionally so that you're ready to enter the world of work. If you act smart in graduate school, by the time you graduate you'll have built yourself a professional landing mat of contacts and relationships, which will serve to keep you in the field and, ultimately, employed.

Your objective, should you choose to accept it, is to follow the step – by – step instructions listed below, and fill out any questions.
