

5.3 Objective - Sign Up for Parker Dewey

What is Parker Dewey? Micro-Internships by Parker Dewey provides Indiana Tech student with unique opportunities to gain valuable professional experience outside the traditional internship cycle. Through micro-internships, students can learn and hone the skills that employers look for, build meaningful connections with organizations across the country, and get paid- all in your spare time. Micro-internships are paid, short-term projects posted by employers across a wide range of industries. Often, these projects require 20-40 hours of total work across 2-4 weeks and can be completed remotely. Positions are posted on a rolling basis and can be applied to year-round.

Your objective, should you choose to accept it, is to follow the step – by – step instructions listed below, and fill out any questions. Once you complete all five objectives of your mission, return this sheet, along with the other five objective sheets to careercenter@indianatech.edu. If you have any questions, you can contact HQ at CareerCenter@indianatech.edu or calling at 260-422-5561 ext. 2217. Deadline to complete your mission is January 25, 2021. God Speed!

- Go to careercenter.indianatech.edu
- On the left-hand menu, click on job search resources
- Under the searching for job and internships heading, click on internships
- Scroll down to Micro-Internships by Parker Dewey
- Follow the hyperlink to learn more about Parker Dewey
- Click on the hyperlink on the page to create an account and begin exploring micro-internships.

Take a screenshot of your Parker Dewey account profile page and send it in with your other 5 objectives.